

The J. Morey Company, Inc. announces leadership team promotions for future growth.

Anaheim, CA – June 27, 2016 – It is the mission of the J. Morey Company, Inc. and its related companies to meet the ongoing insurance needs and preferences of our customers. The executive promotions, announced today, enhance our commitment to provide our clientele with the most effective, current, and high quality services and products. These changes represent the next steps in applying executive talents to our diversified insurance services within the growing global economy today, and in the future.

- Joshua Morey, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, is the third generation of the Morey family involved in the insurance industry. He will oversee and direct the Northern and Southern California offices of the J. Morey Company, Inc. During his nine-year tenure with the company, Josh led the development and operations of the Little Tokyo office, Downtown Los Angeles, opened in 2010. He is instrumental in streamlining the company's digital services and resources such as user-friendly, online insurance quotes. Earned degrees from Wheaton College in economics and Fuller Seminary College in international-intercultural relations as well as residencies in Tokyo and New York provide diverse, foundational expertise for Joshua's leadership roles.
- Mary Jo Gleaves, Vice President of Production, joined JMC, Inc. in 1997. A twenty-nine year veteran, she began her career with the successful Dornbush-Lewis Insurance Agency serving Northern California. Mary Jo is recognized for strategic production efficiency, which propelled her into the top position as President of IIAB*Cal Silicon Valley chapter, in 2010. She plays a vital role in managing leading-edge, protective products and programs that anticipate the customer's personal or business insurance needs.
- Brent Yoshida, Vice President of Sales, joined JMC in 2010 and has over six years of experience in the insurance industry. Brent is the first Trojan football player in the history of USC to graduate with a degree in architecture. As the sales team torchbearer, he is dedicated to building loyal relationships with our valued clients while delivering integrated and seamless insurance solutions. A strong and caring leader, his priority to perpetuate JMC's commitment to high quality customer service, is first and foremost.
- Kevin Fukuyama, Vice President of Underwriting, joined JMC after receiving his degree in economics from UCLA. He has over seven years of experience in the industry. Kevin received 2015's IIAB*Cal's Harlan Miller Award for Emerging Leaders, preparing him as a state and national liaison of industry leaders to confer with members of Congress about insurance issues. Kevin and his team are committed to solving all lines of underwriting challenges with proposals that are effective, market-specific, and detail-oriented.
- Nancy Lin, Vice President of Administration, began her insurance career with JMC in 1982. Nancy served the company in personnel services, office supervisor, and personal lines underwriting. She continually improves the company's daily work environment, through her direct oversight of business operations, human resources, licensing, and statutory record keeping. With institutional knowledge of JMC, she manages efficient and reliable support for our sales, account management, underwriting and financial teams.
